As a volunteer for Dallas Center Fire-Rescue, I have had the privilege of working along side Chad first as Police Chief in Dallas Center, and now as Dallas County Sheriff, on many occasions.

Chad is a role model in our community, demonstrating how a true leader should behave, showing integrity, respect and a genuine concern for the well being of his staff as well as the public that he serves.

While volunteering in the Fire & EMS service in several rural Iowa communities over the last seventeen years, I have had the opportunity to interact with a number of law enforcement agencies. Without question, Chad and his staff are some of the most professional individuals I have ever worked with in the field.

From Chad himself, to his deputies and dispatchers, the Dallas County Sheriff Department has evolved into a model for others to emulate, and a large part of that is due to Chad's leadership over the last few years. As a result, I am supporting Chad in his re-election campaign for Dallas County Sheriff.
